

VRBCB Dyno Day at Miller Performance - March 20, 2010

	Entrant	Vehicle	Power (HP)		Torque (ft lb)		Jim's Comments
			Estimate	Dyno	Estimate	Dyno
1	Bernie Hamm	80 Fiat X19 (single carb)	76	77	65	67	An exceptionally accurate prediction
2	Paulo Silva	70 R8 Gordini	115	99	100	80	A beautiful collector car in French Blue
3	Larry Bell	82 Trans AM Racer	310	310	320	342	HP as expected; happy with torque
4	Dale Warren	07 Mustang	280	290	305	302	Right on with quiet power; very nice streeter
5	Denis Repel	74 Camaro	325	360	330	381	The Monster; everyone left the garage!
6	Alan Harvey	71 MGB	110	101	140	163	Lots of Ye Olde British torque
7	Tedd McHenry	72 Xpit	60	75	45	53	Above expectations
8	Alan Sieben	80 Fiat X19	65	80	58	85	Perfect stock specimen
9	Evan Williams	88 Swift	170	NR	130	NR	A high speed miss but very strong crowd pleaser
10	Alan Donaldson	M3 Coupe	210	220	220	232	A happy guy
11	Bernie Hamm	80 Fiat X19 (dual Webers)	76	78	65	65	Gotta have more cam
12	Bernie Hamm	88 Yugo	60	73	54	68	Surprising - a stoplight GP sleeper?
13	Randy Custer	Cortina		44		63	The lowest HP recorded by Miller! -- Ever!!
14	Brian Meakings	BMW 325		128		158	Ran very nicely
15	Jim Latham	68 Volvo	180	154	150	138	Not up to last year - seriously rich. Fuel pressure?
16	Alan McColl	MGB GT	180	186	205	207	Box stock --- almost
17	John McCoy	69 Escort	185	220	160		A real screamer; best efficiency but tranny went bang!
